Building stronger local economies

Using public land to bring economic growth to Bristol

Bristol is set to benefit from a new arena, thanks to an agreement which sees the site on which it will be based transfer from the HCA to Bristol City Council. This is supported with funding from government

The agreement will support the local economy by...

Creating around 2,700 jobs across Bristol Temple Quarter Enterprise Zone

Accommodating up to 300 new and affordable homes on the development site

Unlocking around £233m in private investment in the enterprise zone
